

View this email in your browser

Modern Meets Traditional

Tom's Urban Kitchen + Brewery tailored its restaurant to meet the unique needs of travelers at the Denver International Airport. The result? Guests are treated to great food, drink and service in a high-energy location. With so many dimensions, it is hard not to enjoy the craft beers and flexible dining options.

Read about some of the innovations that make it all happen.

Testa Barra: Where Family Is a Passion

The Baldwin Group recently launched its new restaurant Testa Berra, which provides a city-social vibe and gathering point in suburban settings. Its concept boasts unique dining experiences to serve a wide-ranging of clientele. Take a tour of the Clinton Township, Michigan, location.

JGA Upcoming Events

Ken Nisch will present, "Digital to Physical: The impact of social selling, remote inventory and customization...Is it still at store?"

in-store asia

March 14-15

Mumbai, India

In the News

Sleep Number Innovates to Stay Ahead of its Competitors

NRF's Magazine Stores

Retail: The Experience They Crave, The Data You Need

Consumer Technology Association

Naturalizer to Open Flagship Stores in New York City and Chicago in Spring 2019

Business Wire

NRF Meet Focuses on Disruptive Power of Technology

retail4growth

Food is maybe the only universal thing that really has the power to bring everyone together.

--Guy Fieri, Chef and restaurateur

Retail Focus: Guest Column

Jamie Dworkin of Threadstone Advisors explains that it takes time and planning to find a quality private equity firm. A well-run process should include time to meet with your advisor, test the market, and determine a structure. The most successful transaction results from proper engagement and full disclosure, so it is worth your time to find a trusted advisor. Learn more about what a successful relationship looks like.
